

Aircraft Wrecks in the Mountains and Deserts of the American West

Globe GC-1B N3818K

On December 18, 1966, Globe GC-1B N3818K experienced loss of power resulting in an forced landing in hilly terrain near Moorpark, CA. One person died in the crash, and another sustained serious injuries. Wreckage was removed the following day.